

All Are Welcome at St. Alban's Episcopal Church

8:00 am Sunday November 2, 2025

The Twenty First Sunday after Pentecost

St. Alban's seeks to be an open and welcoming, Christ-centered community committed to sharing Christ's love, empowering all people to grow spiritually, deepening our relationship with Christ, and living out our faith in our community and the world.

Luke 6:20-31

²⁰Then he looked up at his disciples and said: “Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹“Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. “Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. ²²“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. ²³Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. ²⁴“But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. ²⁵“Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. “Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. ²⁶“Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

²⁷“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. ²⁹If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. ³⁰Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. ³¹Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Soup Supper November 19th Celebrating Native American Heritage Month: Join us Wednesday, November 19th for our next Soup and Salad Supper which will be hosted by our Indigenous Circle. We'll start the evening at 6:00 p.m. in the sanctuary with an Indigenous Episcopal Evening Prayer Service. Supper is at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall, followed by our program. Food for this event will be provided by members of our Indigenous Circle, so no contributions are necessary by other attendees. At 7pm we'll view an interview with Steven Charleston, retired American Episcopal bishop, academic and member of the Choctaw Nation. Bishop Charleston will be discussing his book Ladder to the Light. While parishioners are not expected to bring any items, we will gladly accept donations to Women's Spirit Coalition at the event. Please join us for this time of prayer, good food, fellowship, and learning.

Chase Lake Christmas Gift Cards: With the holidays around the corner, it's time for our annual drive (started by Jim Nichols years ago) to the benefit the Chase Lake students and families. Holidays can be very difficult for struggling families. Gift cards from Fred Meyer or Winco enable families to purchase foods, clothes, gifts, etc. These gift cards will be included in Christmas baskets in December. Please donate gift cards by Sunday, November 30th. Gift cards received after that date will be used for families as needed.

Our preference is to receive gift cards that can be directly given to the school. You can also donate money. Designate your donation as "Chase Lake" on the memo line of your check. You can also put cash in an envelope and label the envelope "Chase Lake." Place your name on the envelope so we can give you credit for your contribution.
