

THE SUNDAY PAPER

Year 6
3rd SUNDAY
of EASTER

When Jesus rose from the dead, he had a new kind of life. He did not "come back to life" like some of the people he had healed, who went back to living their regular lives and finally got sick again or grew old and died. Jesus's new life is something completely different. It is full of strangeness and wonder and newness and holiness, and it can never die again. When his friends came near him, they felt that wonder. They felt as if they were with God himself!

JESUS BY THE LAKE

John 21:1-14
SOME OF JESUS'S FRIENDS ROWED OUT ON THE LAKE TO FISH! THEY WORKED ALL NIGHT...

When Jesus gave food to his friends, they knew he loved them and wanted them to share his new life, even though they had not been brave enough to stay with him when he was arrested. They were filled with love and wonder and thanks and joy!

© 1986 by Gretchen Wolff Pritchard • THE SUNDAY PAPER
19 Colony Road, New Haven, CT 06511 USA • 203 • 624-2520 • www.the-sunday-paper.com