Feast of St. Drogo on April 19th: Join us today after worship when we will celebrate St. Drogo, Patron of Baristas during coffee hours. A few years ago, we celebrated this most blessed and caffeinated of feast days. We're reviving the celebration by offering espresso drinks during both coffee hours. If you have an espresso maker or a moka pot, bring it to church on April 19th. We'll provide the perfectly ground black and sticky beans, milk, and dairy alternatives. Together will celebrate the life and ministry of that poor shepherd, whose faith brings so much joy, inspiration, and alertness.

Soup Supper This Wednesday, April 22nd: We continue with our Wednesday Evening Prayer at 6:00pm in the Sanctuary on Wednesday, April 22nd. Following the service, there is a fellowship soup supper and program beginning at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall. Please note this month's date is a different Wednesday due to Easter celebrations. If you would like to contribute to the meal, please bring soup, salad, bread or dessert. This is a great opportunity to share a meal and get to know other parishioners better.

ECW Women's Coffee May 2nd: Be sure to join us on Saturday, May 2, 10:30-12:00pm for the next ECW Coffee. Maryellen Young and Jeannie Burpee will be our featured speakers as they talk about their recent trip called "Celtic Roots in Brittany and Gaul: A pilgrimage to France." Come and learn something about Celtic Christianity. Coffee, tea, and light refreshments will be offered. You don't want to miss this great presentation!
